President's Message

Hi Valley Quilters,

I am really looking forward to seeing everyone at the guild meeting this month. I have been busy working on my Block of the Month's (BOM's)! I am having a great time getting each block for all my BOM'S (I have 4 of them) done each month so I am ready for the next one. Remember the quilt show is coming and we will all want to show what we have created with our own BOM'S.

I am looking for the entertainment for our Christmas luncheon; if you have ideas concerning our luncheon, please let me know.

We had a great time on the bus trip to Rosie's! I can't wait for the next bus trip. Thanks Pam Verberg for organizing the trip.

Keep on quilting everyone. See you at the meeting,

Mary Myers, 1st Vice President

This month's meeting will be with the vendor Private Source Quilting. They will be our speaker and are also bringing quilting goods. Come early to shop! They have yardage on the bolt for $3.95/yard, but you do have to buy the whole bolt. Share with friends. They will also have kits, jelly rolls, and more.

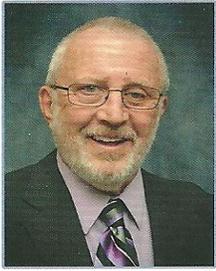

I have 16 signed up for the Lyn Mann class "Happy Birthday Quilt." That class will be held on July 24th from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Sun City Community Center located at 26850 Sun City Blvd., Sun City. We only have room for 4 more quilters. Don't lose out, get signed up. The class fee is $35.00.

Retreats

Mary Myers, 1st Vice President

It is time to get signed up for next year's Retreat. I already have 8 signed up. We can only take the first 24 who sign up. Pick a friend to sign up with you. The retreat will be March 9-12, 2020 and the cost is $330.00 per person (double occupancy).

It is just too much fun to miss out! Bring your check book to the June guild meeting and get signed up.

The third fat quarter of the mystery/challenge quilt was given out at May's meeting and samples were shared of the frames to be put around the first and second blocks. LYLA STIGALL made a ton of pet bed cases for John to stuff and me to close up. Marianne Crouch presented John with a huge bag of batting scraps to be cut up, and our donation to the Ramona Humane Society was over 50 beds. Thanks to all for helping make the factory hum!!
