President's Message

Dear Valley Quilters

Good Morning all! As I write this message on this beautiful day with the sun out, I think "what shall I do today". Oh, I know stay home, as all of us have been doing. I know we are all about done with this stay at home stuff, but we all need to try to hang on for a while longer. It will all be worth it in the end.

I have talked with Valley Wide and we cannot meet there for Needle Yakkers or board meetings till after June 18. I also talked with Seven Hills and they said we will not be able to meet for our May 26th meeting. Seven Hills was very hopeful that we may get to meet for the June meeting.

I'm hoping all of you have been doing some fun projects to keep busy. I love seeing all the posts on our Hemet Valley Quilters Facebook page. I have started working on Shirley Mykris challenge, Storm at Sea. Also, I have completed 2 blocks for the Block of the Month project. This is a great time to be able to keep up with our various activities of the Guild.

I was so sad to hear the Andersons are moving away. They have been such active members of our Guild and they will surely be missed. I wish them all the best as they go on this new journey of life.

I know Sunshine and Shadows has been busy this month. My thought and prayers are with those who have been sick and have lost loved ones.

I'm missing all of you and can't wait till we can all be together again. My job as President has been challenging with nothing to do.

SCCQG

Linda St Jean

Due to the continuing "Stay at Home" orders, with no clear date for re-opening, the SCCQG has decided to cancel the annual "MEET THE TEACHERS" event that had been rescheduled for September 12th. This event will NOT have a 2020 schedule. The plan is to meet again in April 2021 with an exact date to be announced sometime in the near future. I will forward future changes and updates as I receive information.

Meantime, stay safe and be ready to meet again, hopefully real soon. Let me know if you have any questions.

Yakkers and Philanthropy Projects

A couple of days ago I was able to go into Valley Wide to take out a couple of quilts and a bunch of pillow cases. If you would like to make either one of the quilts or pillowcases, please let me know. The quilts are pinned and all ready to go. Call me and we can work out the exchange.

I don't know about you, but my stash is being depleted. I love my sewing room, but I'm more than ready to meet with all my quilting friends, even if we can't hug.

Thanks!

Opportunity Quilt Update Sue Leuschen & Lori Mathis

The Opportunity Quilt is safe and ready to be shown in its glory. Not much to report, except we do go to Beaumont the end of July. That is, if all things go well. Also, Fallbrook is checking on a date for us to come. A great happening, Yucca Valley had their show in March a week before they were closed down.

Stay Safe and healthy. Look forward to seeing everyone again!

Sue Leuschen

Block of The Month

Linda Wayment

I hope you're all having fun completing block 1 and 2 for the Block of the Month project. I can't wait until we're together again, so that I can see the beautiful colors you have all chosen. Month 3 Block will be going out real soon, so keep your eye out for it. Get your scraps or fat quarters together and put them to good use. Miss you all and can't wait to see what each of you have created.

Keep Quilting!
Linda

Challenge Quilt
"Storm at Sea"
Shirley Mykris

Hi to all! Hope you are busy working on your Challenge Quilt.

Just a few reminders:

It doesn't have to be paper pieced.

It can be smaller than the size I mentioned before.

After making mine I could see where some designs would be smaller.

So, with that being said, I really hope you will give it a try!

Good Luck!

Shirley

Show and Tell

Marith Jones and Edna Hornhoki

I sure hope you ladies have gotten a lot of sewing done. I think I have done more eating than sewing.

Thank you to those of you that have been posting your handiwork on our Facebook page. Please be sure and take a look everyone!

If you have something to share, please post, so all can see on our Facebook page, Hemet Valley Quilters.

Thank You
Marith Jones
