President's Message

Yea! School is starting and all the kids are back in school. This is good news for those of you who have to help with child care. Today is a good day to sit at our sewing machine. It's too hot to go outside. Hope you are all taking advantage of this so we have a lot of beautiful quilts for our Quilt Show.

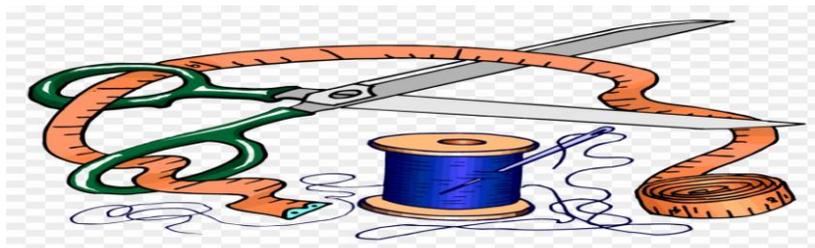

I have good news to report. We are now able to meet at Valley Wide. This means we can start having Needle Yakkers and Mini Workshops again soon on Monday's. We are waiting for Valley Wide to build new cabinets for us. We will be meeting in a new room next to the parking lot in the back. I am excited about this because we will be moving forward on our plans for the Quilt Show.

Pat Newsom and Linda St Jean have been working hard on getting some great speakers scheduled for us. We can only do this with everyone taking part in buying the door prize tickets. It is so fun to see what everyone wins. So, let's take a little more time to share with everyone what we won. Stand up to show your prize, so everyone can see.

September is our Birthday Luncheon and we have Between Stitches coming as a vendor. We will also be having a box lunch. The lunch is $12.00 and MUST be preordered. Bring your money to the meeting and see Lorie Mathis with the signup sheet. Don't get left out by not signing up.

Behind every quilter is a pile of fabric. Let's cut it up and make quilts.

Door Prizes

Suzanne Wade

Ladies/Quilters - Methinks the enthusiasm for the door prize is waning with less income this past month. So, being creative, as all quilters are, I suggest that some of the quilters that "missed out" in bringing a gift because their birthdays are before April, consider bringing something for us to be in awe over. I have run out of residual gifts from past years, but do have a stack of Block Books, which may aid in bringing in the revenue. There are only five August birthdays, eight for September, the Guilds birthday month, nine for October, four for November, and eleven for December. If you wish to "pay forward". This would be a good time, but it's all in fun, so just enjoy the adventure, and may I call your winning ticket!

Valley Quilters 2022 Quilt Show Geri Hauser and Nancy Alaksin

Our Quilt Show is planned for February 11 and 12, 2022.

Just want to share with everyone that the Quilt Show is being planned. During this time of "wait and see" we still have to plan as though the show will go on. Please remember to pick up your raffle tickets and beautiful post cards. Also, as I mentioned last month there are 20 committees that will need to be chaired along with 20-40 committee members. It takes a village to put on our show...please plan to be part of it.

If there are any new members with questions, please call me. Geri Hauser: 951-491-4207

Yakkers and Philanthropy Projects

Natasha Macias
and Sharon Brewer

Needle Yakker workers have been busy bees lately getting Security Quilt kits ready for guild members to take home to complete. After its completed bring it back to the next guild meeting and it will be given to a person in need. What's great about that is it satisfies your membership agreement and you feel really good that someone will be warm with their cozy quilt.

So, at the next guild meeting you will be asked to take a security quilt and bring it back completed.

Thank you in advance! We appreciate your help!

Block of The Month

Sally Hill

Grandma's Garden

We are just half way done with the Block of the Month. This month we are on Block 7 called the Peony Flower. Peonies colors are pink, salmon, yellow, white, and red. Some Peony flower facts:

- Flowers symbolize food fortune, love, and honor.
- One plant can bloom for many years, if you have a green thumb.
- This plant grows very well in Alaska because of the cool weather.

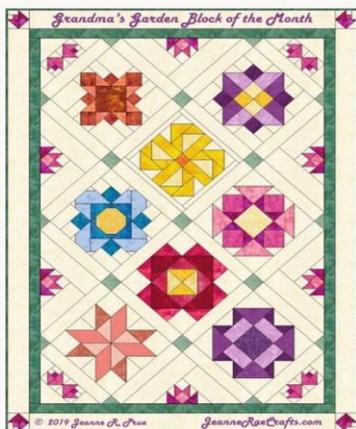

The block should be 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ " unfinished. You can show me your finished block at the meetings, by email OR text/send me a picture of your block.

Our 1st small drawing was won by Elaine Robertson. I met up with her and gave her the gift bag. She was excited! Our next small drawing will be at the September meeting for the finished blocks 4, 5, & 6. Hope you are enjoying making the Block of the Month.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Have fun and enjoy!

Thank You,

Sally Hill Sal6616@hotmail.com
