President's Message

I think everyone remembers the nursery rhyme, "Mary Had A Little Lamb", well it is happening at my house. We had two baby lambs, Elvis and Lemonade born that their mothers rejected, so we are bottle feeding them every 4 hours. Thankfully I don't have to do the night feedings, they go to my daughter's house for this one. They have become attached to us and follow us wherever we go. I came home from Church and found them curled up on my patio waiting patiently for someone to come and hold them. We are cutting back on the feedings, but I have not been getting much else done, it is amazing how much time they take. Having animals is always interesting.

I really enjoyed Linda Sullivans trunk show and her fun quilts. Everyone that took her class said she was a great teacher and enjoyed learning her techniques. We are having a trunk show this month by Laurretta Crites. We are fortunate that we have the opportunity of so many good teachers coming to our guild to do presentation, we can learn a lot from them.

I am loving this June weather, the calm before the heat. I really do not like the heat, as you know by now, so this is wonderful and can stay as long as it likes.

Keep quilting

Linda

Upcoming Programs:

June- Loretta Crites will awaken your creativity and help you realize that if you can dream it, you can do it in her lecture presentation of PICTURE THIS! Will be a fun day of great possibilities.

July-Jean Imprey will be teaching us "All About Fabric" (our fabric subject) & then in her workshop we will do a "stash busting" quilt, called MISSY BLEU that we can "Quilt as We Go" and quickly finish!

4H Harvesters of Hemet Kids Sue Lueschen and Deanna Coleman

We had a great time at 4 H Harvesters of Hemet. The children learned tying quilts by making the quilt and tying it. One of the girls wants to make more ribboned baby quilts, another doll blankets for a friend and another thinks dog blankets would be fun. I'm happy the Valley Quilters is teaching our younger generation the art of quilting.

Mini Workshops

Kathy Smigun

Our mini-workshop on July 11th will be a fun class on learning a new method for turned edge applique. We have seen Cheryl Winblad's beautiful applique quilts during our Guild meeting Show and Tell presentations and are looking forward to see how they are done. There are a few spots open. Sign up at the June meeting to reserve your spot. Our workshop will be held at Valley wide on Esplanade in the rear portable building from 9:00am until 2:00pm.

Future Mini Workshop

Free Motion Quilting

Do you want to be able to finish your quilts yourself? There will be a Mini Workshop on how to do free motion quilting on your domestic machine given by our own Amy Mora! Sign-ups will be at the June and July guild meeting.
